- NGO Talks: Invited NGOs will discuss their work, challenges, and impacts, fostering interactions and potential collaborations with attendees. Their presence will spark meaningful dialogue, inspire new collaborations, and motivate participants to think creatively about tackling social challenges, making PRISM'24 a hub for innovative solutions in social work.

The Social Welfare and Development Committee invites Yajurvendra Mahajan,

Founder of the Deepstambh Foundation, to participate as a speaker at PRISM'24. The Deepstambh Foundation has played a crucial role in empowering individuals by eliminating barriers such as physical, social, and economic challenges, allowing them to realize their full potential. Through its integrated support system, the foundation has transformed many lives, fostering self-reliance, confidence, and dignity.

NGO Talks

UNICEF Foundation is a remarkable pillar in social work, with unique and impactful contributions to society. UNICEF operates on a global scale, working tirelessly in over 190 countries to save children's lives, defend their rights, and support their journey from childhood through adolescence. By creating safe spaces, providing education, and advocating for child protection.

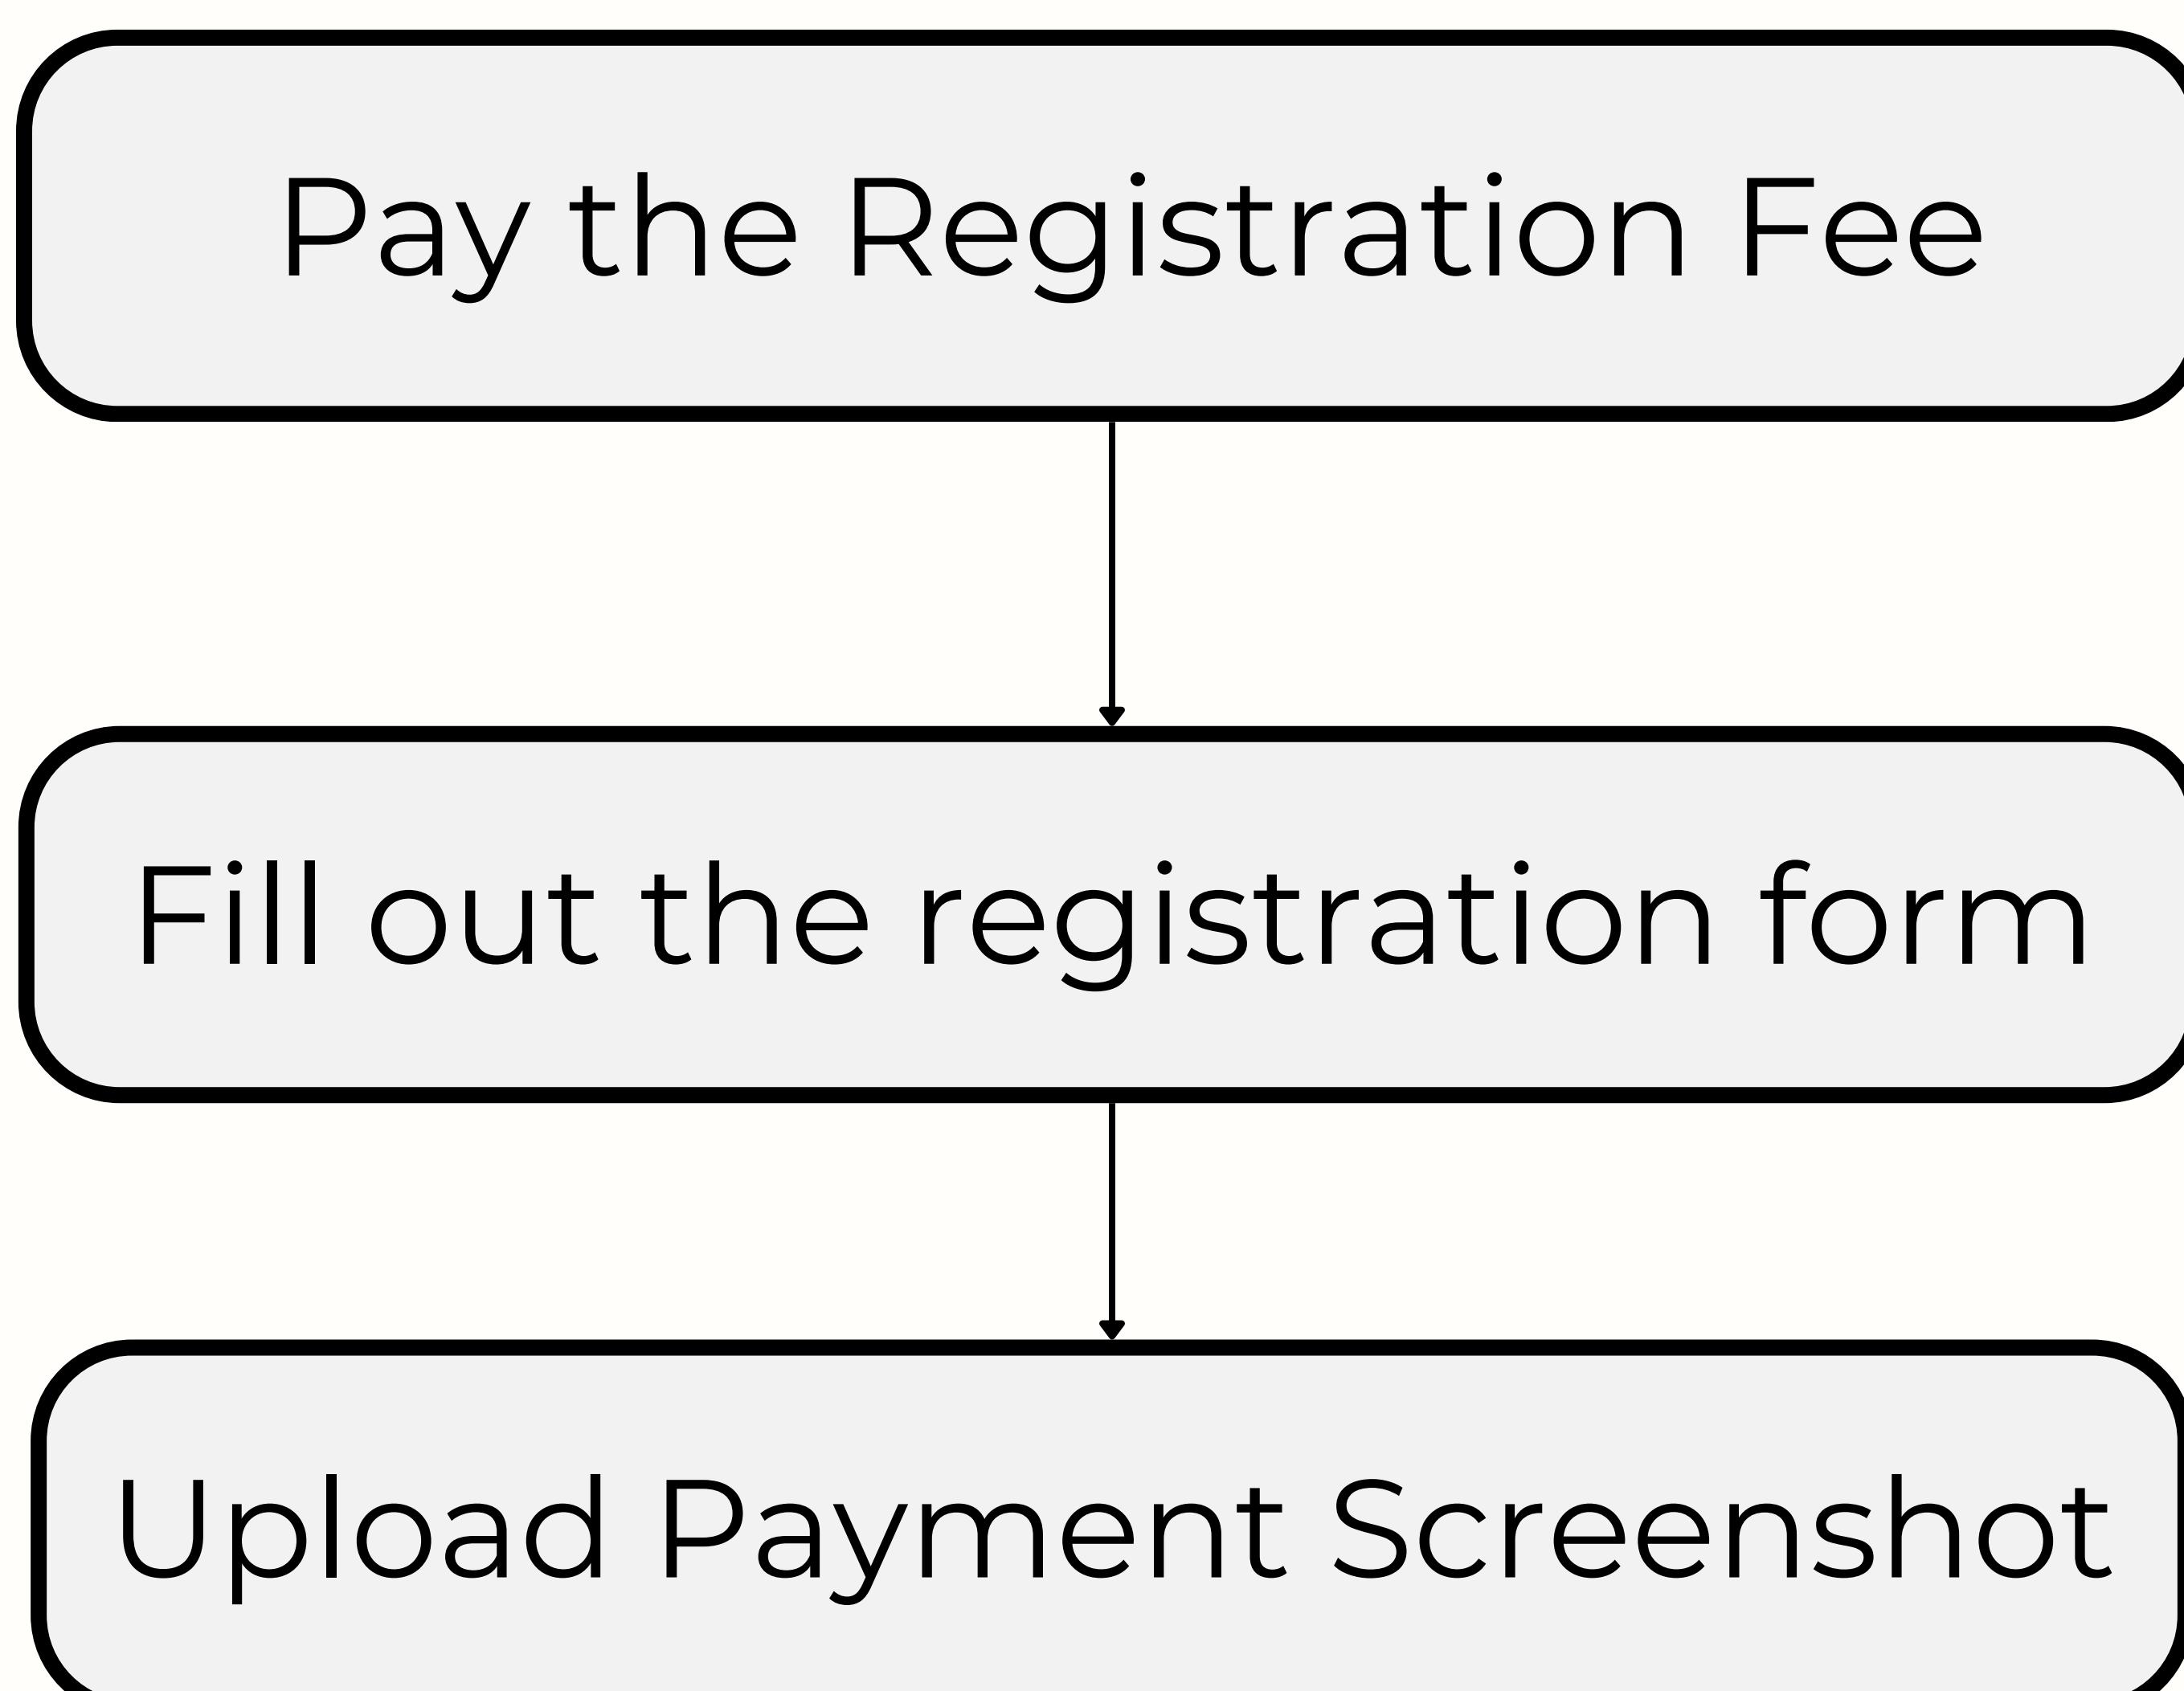

On the other hand, Naam Foundation addresses grassroots issues, particularly among farmers in drought-prone areas of Maharashtra. Beyond financial aid, Naam's innovative approach includes large-scale tree planting, farmer training, and employment creation, fostering sustainable livelihoods. By adopting villages and focusing on empowering women and youth, Naam Foundation turns adversity into a platform for resilience and community strength.
